

CITATION

Dr.G.Rajarajan is graduated from Madras Veterinary College in 1996 and obtained BVSc degree with Gold medal. He has earned his post graduation in Dairy Microbiology with ICAR-Junior Research Fellowship from Madras Veterinary College and obtained MVSc degree with Gold medal in 1999. He has received PhD from TANUVAS and also awarded Dr. Kurien Medal for his doctoral research in 2017. He has obtained PG Diploma in Dairy Processing and Quality Assurance and certificate course in Animal welfare from TANUVAS.

He served as a Veterinary Assistant Surgeon in Government of Tamil Nadu for 10 years from 1998-2008 and then joined in Tamil Nadu Veterinary and Animal Sciences University as Assistant Professor in 2008. Totally he has put 22 years of service.

He has published 27 research articles in peer reviewed journals and edited two books. He has presented 25 research papers in National and International conferences. He has completed 5 research projects under ICAR, NADP, IAEA, NABARD and TANUVAS. He has guided 2 students so far.

He is a life member of Indian Veterinary Association, Indian Dairy Association, Indian Science Congress, Association of Food Scientist and Technologists of India (AFSTI), Indian Meat Science Association and Association of Meat Scientist and Technologists of India.

He served as a Member of Board of Directors of AAVIN, Tiruchirapalli during 2013-2018. Currently, he is serving as a member of Board of Studies, Faculty of Food Sciences, TANUVAS, Member of Institutional Animal Ethics Committee, Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirapalli, Campus Placement cell Coordinator for Veterinary College and Research Institute, Orathanadu in Thanjavur district and also holding Treasurer post of Indian Dairy Association, Tamil Nadu state chapter.

*****